El swapmeet sin fronteras

SAN DIEGO ↔ TIJUANA • Shipping across the USA

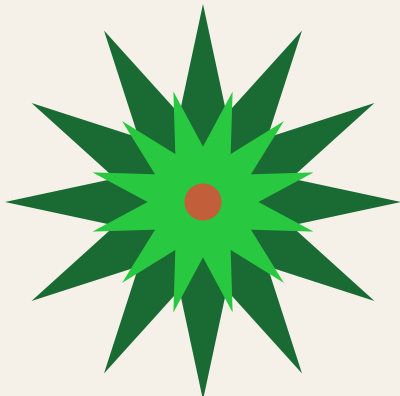

01 — THE IDEA

A border isn't an edge. It's a meeting point.

Frontera Finds is the online swapmeet for the San Diego-Tijuana megaregion — where a Sunday garage sale stretches across two countries. Sellers list secondhand treasure, vintage gear, and handmade goods on either side of the line; buyers anywhere in the USA get it shipped to their door.

The identity had to feel refined and confident — a premium frame around scrappy, one-of-a-kind finds. Agave green roots it in the borderland: the plant that grows on both sides of the fence, geometric, resilient, unmistakably of this place.

02 — THE MARK

The Agave Star

A top-down agave rosette built from twelve radial leaves — and read another way, a starburst marking the spot where treasure is found. Native to both Baja and Southern California, the agave is the region made geometric.

01 Radial & symmetric

Twelve identical leaves — two cities, equal weight, no center of gravity.

02 Reads as a find

The starburst doubles as an "X marks the spot" — discovery, built in.

Hard edges and a clay core keep it modern, scalable to a favicon.

03 — LOGO LOCKUPS

Four configurations, one system.

INLINE — COMPACT / NAV

Agave first. Earth around it.

A deep agave green carries the brand; warm bone and sand keep it premium; clay is the single accent — used only to mark a find.

06 — USAGE

Give it room. Keep it honest.

CLEAR SPACE

MINIMUM SIZE

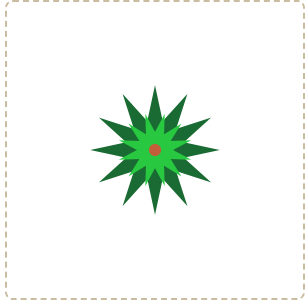

48px web

24px favicon

16px min

Keep clear space equal to one agave leaf on every side. Nothing intrudes.

Never render the mark below 16px. Below that, the leaves lose definition.

MISUSE — NEVER

✗ Don't stretch

✗ Don't rotate

✗ Don't recolor

✗ Don't add shadow

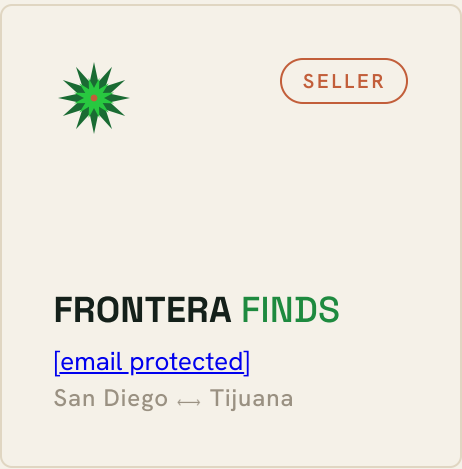

Out in the world.
